

FIZZ

Mini Half Bottle

Prosecco Mionetto Sergio Spumante

Italy 17.00 27.00

If you are comparing Prosecco to shoes – Mionetto is definitely a sexy pair of Louboutins rather than a comfy pair of high street pumps.

Di Maria Prosecco

Italy 8.00

These mini bottles are ideal if you don't like to share.

Di Maria Pink Raboso Prosecco

Italy 8.00 25.00

You are not wearing rose tinted glasses, this Prosecco is actually pink!

Prosecco Casa Defra Frizzante

Italy 22.00

This prosecco has less bubbles in than the normal but is packed full with the grapey prosecco fizziness that everyone loves. If it's not broke, don't fix it.

Champagne Autreau Roualet Brut

France 32.00

Champagne Sweetie Darling? Having an Ab-Fab moment is hard to resist with these fine bubbles – goes well with Chanel no.5!

Knightor Brut

Cornwall 38.00

Cornish Brut from Cornish grapes from Cornish vineyards Made by Cornish people. Even the foil top is made out of Cornish tin.

Camel Valley Brut

Cornwall 40.00

Unsurprisingly, much like Knightor, Camel Valley Brut is made from Cornish grapes etc etc. The name Camel Valley is synonymous with the very best English wines.

Laurent Perrier Brut Champagne

France 60.00

Elegant and delicate in style, refinement in bubbles. Lazy Sunday brunch anyone?

Dom Perignon Vintage

France 150.00

A truly remarkable Champagne from one of the most prestigious of houses.

DESSERT WINE

100ml Bottle

Muscat de Mireval, Chateau d'Exindre

France 4.50 32.00

Deeply honeyed, fragrantly aromatic, perfectly formed dessert wine from the Sicard family of Montpellier.

Tamar Ridge Botrytis Riesling 37.5cl

Australia 42.00

Tazzie has lots of Cornish place names...Real Cousin Jack territory so we had to squeeze this racy little gem onto our list.

PORT

50ml Bottle

Taylor's Fine Tawny Reserve

Portugal 2.60 35.00

Wood aged port from this famous old producer – mellow and rounded.

Quinta de la Rosa late Bottled Vintage 50cl

Portugal 4.20 40.00

Vibrant cherry-purple red and powerful and it come in a very attractive decanter style bottle – go on spoil yourself!

WINE LIST

wineincornwall

All wines by the glass are available in a 125ml measurement

WHITE

175ml 250ml Bottle

Audacia Macabeo

Spain 4.20 5.50 15.50

From a town only a stones throw away from Rioja, there is nothing not to like about this dry refreshing white.

Roos Chenin Blanc

South Africa 4.50 6.00 17.00

Roos Chenin Blanc certainly isn't a ruse, tropical and medium dry.

Fritz Pittner Gruner Veltliner

Austria 5.10 7.00 19.00

Gruener Veltliner dubbed 'Gru Vee' by the 'trendies' sounds coarse on the tongue but is smooth and peppery on the palate.

Las Olas Torrontes

Argentina 5.80 7.80 22.00

Torrontes sounds more like a Spanish Dance than a wine but this floral, aromatic grape variety goes perfectly with Asian inspired dishes.

Flying Kiwi Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc

New Zealand 6.80 8.90 26.00

Well they don't do they? Fly. So it's a joke! Strange Antipodean humour we guess. Delicious all the same.

Viega da Princesa Albarino

Spain 7.00 9.40 27.00

A very fine Albarino from the best location in North West Spain. Zingy citrus fruit laced with ripe apricots and peaches.

Cortefresca Pinot Grigio

Italy 17.00

People drink PG by the bucket load, this one is only available by the bottle. Fresh and easy drinking.

Wildwood Chardonnay

USA 18.00

This certainly isn't the over oaked Chard that turned so many noses in the 70's; citrus fresh and for people like to live on the wild side (wildwood... get it?)

Domaine Des Lauriers Picpoul de Pinet

France 20.00

Picpoul literally translates to 'lip stinger'! Born for the oysters and seafood of the Med. No reports of stinging... so far.

La Forge Marsanne

France 24.00

Jean-Claude (can you guess where he may be from?) has created this rich, yet mellow white with lots of melon and peach.

The Courtesan Dry Riesling

Australia 27.00

The Courtesan fluttered her eyelashes at you and asked you to buy her for only £27! Great value for money on this racy number from the top notch Clare Valley. Better than Falmouth Docks perhaps?

Macon Personnets, Collovray et Terrier

France 30.00

Good white Burgundy really does have panache - a rare beast but worth the hunt.

Chablis Simmonet-Febvre

France 32.00

Classic, flinty, lime-infused, chalk-dry, stiletto-tipped - just a lot of adjectives!

Sancerre, Domaine de la Tonneellerie

France 34.00

Minerally Eastern Loire Sauvignon Blanc from the Thiot family's old barrel making Domaine - roll it out!

Pouilly Fume, Domaine des Vallee's

France 35.00

We like our French classics down here on Muddy Beach - they are not a bad old bunch and make some scintillating dry whites.

ROSE

175ml 250ml Bottle

Audacia Rosado

Spain 4.10 5.30 15.00

A stereotypical light and flirty rose - dry and easy to drink... maybe a bit too easy on a summers day overlooking the river.

Re Paulo Primitivo Rose

Italy 4.50 6.00 17.00

Primitivo is another name for Zinfandel. Still has lots of strawberry sweetness but with a touch more class added into every bottle. A great summer wine.

Domaine Pique Roque Provence Rose

France 24.00

Made by a Cornishman in France, this refined heathery rose has proven very popular (more than a frog's leg pasty anyway). Well worth the extra couple of pounds.

RED

175ml 250ml Bottle

Audacia Garnacha

Spain 4.10 5.30 15.00

Peppery, fruit laden Spanish wonder - just fun to be around and light enough to enjoy without food (not that we are suggesting it!)

Roos Pinotage

South Africa 4.50 6.00 17.00

Pinotage was the result of a lab experiment gone awry, they crossed two light red grape varieties and got a new bold, smoky red variety. One of life's great mistakes.

Hilmar Springs Zinfandel

USA 4.80 6.50 18.00

Forgive me ... for I have zinned! And if you are not zinning, you should be! Plum and spiced fig makes this a great roast wine.

Santa Alicia Carmenere Reserva

Chile 5.80 7.80 22.00

Among the black berry fruit is lots of minty spice and green aromas - the Muddy Beach staff thought it tasted and smelt a bit like the Jalapeno Pretzels on the bar. A highly rated red from a quality Chilean winery.

Mas d'Auzieres Les Eclats, Pic Saint-Loup

France 7.00 9.40 27.00

A baby Chateaufeuf; this wine comes from vineyards which have enormous boulders in between the vines. These lengthen the ripening period giving the wine rich complexity.

Chiliner Merlot

Chile 17.00

A cracking, sumptuous, blackberry-infused wine - a classic example of this new wave, new world favourite.

Palazzo Del Mare Nero d'Avola

Italy 18.00

Rustic and full of fresh red fruit, plus - it's fun to say 'Nero D'Avola' in your best Super Mario Italian accent.

Los Espinos Cabernet Sauvignon

Chile 19.00

The Hawthorns ! Bags (...ies, football fans will understand!) of succulent blackcurrant juiciness.

Willowglen Shiraz

Australia 20.00

Made by an Italian family in Australia. This spicy Shiraz is a corker (pun intended).

Opta Dao, Boas Vinhas

Portugal 23.00

There is more than just a small resemblance to Port here.

Dante Robino Malbec

Argentina 25.00

Robino not Ribena, maybe the same colour but definitely not suitable for children. Full-bodied with dark fruit and smoke.

Shorn Pinot Noir

New Zealand 26.00

This light and slightly fluffy Pinot Noir is delicate and comely - easy drinking, raspberry scented and fun.

Chateau Semonlon Bordeaux

France 28.00

An old fashioned grumpy claret - dry and grippy in the great tradition of London clubland and Bertie Wooster.

Rioja Reserva Vina Herminia

Spain 33.00

Critically acclaimed! Not by Hollywood but by wine buffs worldwide. Dense and smooth offering rich plum flavours, tobacco & tar.

Chateaufeuf du Pape, Les Combelles

France 40.00

Popes to Newcastle: Yes, that IS the translation of Chateaufeuf -du-Pape (well, loosely...). Warm red fruit, cinnamon spices and jammy concentration.

Sacco Barolo

Italy 41.00

Sounds like a chocolate labrador (it's not). Senor Rocca ages this Barolo for a whopping 3 years before it's released. Intense, elegant and very complex.
